Late Suppers and the Snack Before Going to Bed Are All Right And Safe If You Follow With A Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet.

The stomach often feels empty just before bed time. A little bite usually

"I Sure Made a Great Discovery
When I Learned About Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets."

Induces sleep. To avoid indigestion, restlessness and the "dark brown" taste in the mouth, take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet after eating. It supplies just the right elements to aid in digesting food, rests the stomach, provides properties to relieve the tendency to gasiness and sour rinsing, morning biliousness and consequent absence of appetite for breakfast. To make a practice of always using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after eating is one of those precautionary measures that repay immensely.
This is an age of prevention and these tablets are designed to promote liberty of eating and the good meal.
You will find Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in all drug stores throughout the United States and Canada.

LARGEST OF YEAR

The senior gymnasium class at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night was the largest that it has been this year.
The big increase is due to the fact that a large number of new members were added at the association at Christmas and numerous others started the year by joining. The association now has a membership of about eight hundred.

arrival of the New Year.

FUNERALS.
Mrs. Edward H. Linnell.

The funeral services of Adella A.
Smith, wife of Dr. Edward H. Linnell, were held from her late home at No.
151 Broadway, Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Broderick. There were many floral tributes and a large attendance of relatives and friends, including many from out of town. Rev.
Richard R. Graham, rector of Christ church, officiated at the service. At the house and read a committal service at the grave at Yantic cemetery.

The funeral of Albert Peters was held Tuesday morning from the parlors of the Federated church. The services were held from 10 o'clock to 11 o'clock. Many Civil War veterans and a number of out of town relatives and friends were among the present. The casket rested in the parlor. It was draped with the American flag and was surrounded by daisies. Rev. Arthur P. Purkiss, pastor of the Central Baptist church, conducted the services. The bearers were Herbert F. Brown, Archibald Bulchman, Judge John H. Barnes, George W. Hamilton, Orrin M. Price and N.
Douglas Sevin. Burial was in Man-wood cemetery where Rev. Mr. Purkiss read a short committal service at the grave.

The arrangements were in charge of Undertakers Church and Allen.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Henry R. Gardner.

The death of Mrs. Henry R. Gardner occurred at her home at 53 Mc-Kinley avenue, at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning, following a short illness.
Mrs. Gardner was born in Roxbury, Jan. 30, 1826, the daughter of Amos and Philomela Ford Gardner. She was married to late Mr. H. R. Gardner in Roxbury in 1845 and spent all her married life there and in Norwich where Mr. Gardner died in 1902.
Mrs. Gardner was a devoted member of the Trinity Methodist church. She was survived by her daughter, Alice M.
Gardner, with whom she made her home and four grandchildren.

Mrs. John Monahan.
Mary Monahan, widow of John Monahan died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Ready, 2 Hickory street, Tuesday afternoon. She was born in County Limerick in Ireland and came to this country with her family when very young. She has resided in Norwich since coming to America. She was married in Norwich to John Monahan who died eighteen years ago. Mrs. Monahan is survived by two daughters, Sister Mary Albertine of New Haven and Mrs. John Ready of this city.

Charles Wilson Dewey.
Charles Wilson Dewey, a veteran of the Civil War, and for many years a painter in the Olneyville and Cranston sections of Rhode Island, died Saturday night at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary E. Dewey, 155 Dyer avenue, Cranston. He had been deaf and blind for two years.

When President Lincoln issued a call for volunteers in the outbreak of the Civil war, Mr. Dewey enlisted with Company F, Tenth Regiment Connecticut Volunteers and served with that unit until the close of the war.

He was born 75 years ago, in Johnston, and moved with his parents, when a small boy to Baltic, Conn. At the close of the Civil War he returned to Johnston, moving shortly afterward to Apponaug, where he was married more than half a century ago. A few years later he went to Cranston, and then to Johnston again.

Mr. Dewey is survived by three children, Mrs. John McCall of Pawtucket, John E. Dewey of Providence and William Henry Dewey of Cranston.
He was a former member of Thomas Post, G. A. R. of Apponaug.

The committee in charge of the New Year's Eve dance to be held at the armory by the state guard companies and American Legion met on Tuesday evening and completed their plans for the dance.

$1,000 Gift For St. Mary's Church Fund

During the past few days generous gifts have been donated to St. Mary's Diamond Jubilee Fund for the erection of a badly needed new church.
The beautiful sentiments expressed by many who are delighted to grasp this chance to honor the memory of their forefathers who were baptized and married and buried from old St.
Mary's, are well expressed in the following letters just received by Rev.
W. F. Keefe, who is director of the Diamond Jubilee Bond Fund.

New York City.
Dear Father Keefe: After reading a newspaper article about a drive for funds for a new church for St. Mary's parish, Norwich, of which my great-grandfather was one of the very first members, I write to present $1,000 for a memorial in the new church in his honor. Would like to give more if circumstances allowed. Praying God to bless your noble work and thanking you for this chance to perpetuate the memory of my loved ones, I am, Yours sincerely,

Another letter from New Haven contains the following lines:

NORWICH HAS TWO
CASES OF DIPHTHERIA

The weekly morbidity report issued by the state department of health for the week ending December 27, 1919, shows that Norwich has two cases of diphtheria. Groton and Stonington each have one. There are no cases of whooping cough reported for Norwich but Groton has eleven cases.
There are three cases of measles shown for Norwich, nine for Jewett City and one for Griswold. Plainfield has ten cases and Sterling one. The number of typhoid fever in the county is one in Groton. Groton also has a case of mumps. Norwich and Jewett City each have a case of scarlet fever. Stockholm has two cases and Williamstown has three cases.

The wood alcohol danger forms an important part of the weekly report.
In spite of the warning issued last week about the danger of poisoning from wood alcohol, the use of the poisonous liquid has continued to increase. The report says:

It was a striking instance of the irony of fate that the wood alcohol tragedies of last week began to occur just twenty-four hours after the newspapers published the warning issued by the state department of health.
As is customary in the publicity work of the health department, the article dealing with the poisonous effects of wood alcohol was sent to every foreign language newspaper printed in the state.

The disaster should not be attributed, however, to general ignorance of the dangers involved in the consumption of wood alcohol as a beverage.
For many years the newspapers have been reporting cases where death resulted from its use, so it may be accepted as a fact that the peril is a matter of common knowledge. The victims probably knew the effects of the poison, but they did not know it was contained in the drink they bought for whiskey.

The one thing which this great calamity emphasizes is the absolute necessity for rigid enforcement of the prohibition law. Before the matter had been adjudicated by the supreme court, the United States supreme court had decided in favor of the constitutionality of the law to justify a certain leniency in dealing with law-breakers; but the recent ruling of the supreme court has removed that doubt.

At a time when we are making great efforts to Americanize the foreign-born element of our population, the open and flagrant violation of the law cannot be tolerated. It is a matter of respect for authority. Aside from the moral aspect of the matter, it is evident that the stock of liquor available for bootlegging is about depleted.
From now on, it may be expected that the stock sold illegally must consist of the rankest grades of whiskey, and though the results may not come as quickly as in the case of wood alcohol, they will be quite as deadly in the long run.

In the outbreak of smallpox, which occurred in Waterbury last week the three cases reported were in people who had never been vaccinated. There were also two cases of varioloid. The source of infection was traced to a child, unrecognized case which occurred in a child two weeks before the present outbreak. The state and local health officials fear no particular alarm over the situation, as Waterbury is considered well protected as a result of the general vaccination treatment given at the time of the epidemic which occurred there a few years ago. They were very few vaccinated children in the schools, and a number of the factories make vaccination a requisite to securing employment. The present cases have been closed under close guard.

Last week a special delivery letter ordering diphtheria antitoxin was delayed 36 hours because it was addressed "Board of Health, Hartford." Instead of being delivered to the Board of Health, in spite of the fact that the state board of health was abolished more than two years ago, many newspaper writers and some health officers still use the title of the old health organization. The letter was sent to the State Department of Health.

SCOUTS MAKE PLANS FOR COMING YEAR

The weekly meeting of Troop No.
6, B. S. A. was held at Trinity M. E. church Tuesday. The regular order of business was transacted. Several scouts passed the first and second class tests. Plans are now being made to make 1920 the best scout year ever. Mr. Stanton, chairman of the troop committee, stated that at each meeting at least one of the committee will be present. He also gave a short talk on the civics merit badge.
He urged each scout to attend the town meetings in order to fully understand the problems which confront tax payers. Orders were issued for each scout to wear his uniform on all scout occasions. The next meeting is to be held Tuesday, Jan. 6.

AT MT. CALVARY BAPTIST

Mt. Calvary Baptist church will have a New Year watch service this (Wednesday) evening. The service will begin at 9 o'clock and the pastor will preach a short sermon from the Psalm: "Prayer will be offered by those present. An invitation will be offered to the unconverted. There will be silent prayer by the congregation which will mark the going out of the old year. The New Year will then be welcomed by singing "Onward Christian Soldiers," and benediction will be pronounced.

METHODISTS TO HOLD

The annual Watch Night services will be held at the First Methodist church tonight from 9 to 12. The first hour will be a testimony meeting, the second a church social with refreshments and the third hour will be devoted to silent prayer by the congregation. Rev. W. H. Bath. There will be a woman's prayer meeting at eight o'clock.

Idleness is the key to poverty.

Dear Father Keefe: My mother was born in St. Mary's parish, Norwich, in 1845. She and her father were buried in the old St. Mary's church. My father worshipped there for years.
Please find enclosed bonds which I am delighted to donate for their memory to your memorial church fund.

A third letter from Hartford reads as follows:

Dear Father Keefe: How glad I was to receive a recent copy of the Norwich Bulletin concerning St. Mary's Diamond Jubilee bond fund. I have the deepest interest in St. Mary's parish.
It was there that my deceased parents spent the greater part of their lives. There my good mother taught Sunday school in her childhood days.
There father and mother were married. Before that loved altar their dear bodies were laid as their funeral masses were sung. There is naturally no spot on earth dearer to me. How happy I am to help toward the success of your campaign to erect a memorial to all whom I loved in childhood days. God bless you and your great work.

Sincerely,

ST. MARY'S RECTOR
ENTERTAINS PARISHIONERS

Fully 500 men and women from St.
Mary's parish and all sections of the city, were guests of Rev. William A.
Keefe in Puppalski hall Tuesday evening and the esteemed rector proved to be a royal entertainer. Messrs. William McCafferty and Edward T. Connelly had general charge of the dancing. They had as their aides Joseph Porteleance, William H. Bowen, Frederick Ashland, Francis J. Murphy, Michael J. Cummings, Patrick McMahon, Frank Leonard, Herbert Ring, William T. Barry, James P. Fox, and John C. Kennedy.

At the intermission Rev. Fr. Keefe extended the New Year's greetings.
In the course of the evening there was a community sing led by Edward T. Connelly. Spellman's orchestra furnished delightful music for the evening and Prof. Charles H. Bennett prompted. It was near the midnight hour when the happy gathering dispersed.
